

Preventing bites with children

Teach your family how to be responsible with your dog or puppy. Dogs often don't enjoy hugs but learn to tolerate them and sometimes like them too. Some don't.

Prolonged stress or excitement can often end in over arousal or an accidental bite. Keep excitement to a minimum and allow your dog time to relax after periods of anxiety or play. Don't wake him!

Katie Scott-Dyer

